Ethics in Academia: Tools and Techniques to Combat Plagiarism
21st September 2024

The AVIT Centre for Continuing Education (ACCE), in association with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Aarupadai Veedu Institute of Technology, successfully organized a Faculty Enrichment Program on “Ethics in Academia: Tools and Techniques to Combat Plagiarism” on 21st September 2024. The program was conducted as part of the Faculty Enrichment Program Series “Nurturing the Faculty in You” – Module 3, exclusively for research scholars and faculty members. Dr. G. Selvakumar, Principal, AVIT, served as the resource person and delivered an insightful and informative session on academic integrity and plagiarism prevention.

The program commenced with a welcome address by Dr. D. S. Vijayan, Research Coordinator, AVIT who highlighted the importance of upholding ethical standards in academic research. The technical session covered various aspects of plagiarism, including its types, consequences, and preventive measures.

The resource person also demonstrated the use of plagiarism detection tools such as Turnitin and iThenticate, explained ethical citation practices, and discussed UGC guidelines related to academic misconduct. The session was highly interactive, featuring real-world examples and engaging discussions on the effective implementation of anti-plagiarism strategies in teaching and research. Faculty members actively participated in the question-and-answer session, sharing their experiences and clarifying practical challenges.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mr. J. Senthil, Coordinator, IQAC.
