Objective	To create awareness among students and faculty about incubation and accelerator opportunities, and to motivate them to transform innovative ideas into successful entrepreneurial ventures.
Outcome	Students and faculty gained awareness of incubation and accelerator opportunities, and were motivated to pursue innovative ideas with institutional support to build early-stage entrepreneurial ventures.

The Entrepreneurship Development Cell (EDC) and Institution's Innovation Council (IIC), AVIT, organized a seminar on "Startup Registration and Funds Generation" on 30th January 2026 at TBSH01, AVIT. The session aimed to create awareness among students and faculty about the procedures involved in startup registration, funding opportunities, and the various incubation and accelerator support systems available to transform innovative ideas into successful entrepreneurial ventures. The session commenced with a welcome address by the organizing committee, emphasizing the importance of entrepreneurship and encouraging participants to explore startup ecosystems and institutional support mechanisms.

The Resource Person, Ms. Agathya Selvakumar, Founder and CEO, FINNMIN, Chennai, shared her entrepreneurial journey and provided practical insights into establishing startups, legal registration processes, and compliance requirements. She elaborated on different funding avenues such as seed funding, angel investors, venture capital, government grants, and incubation-based financial support schemes. She also explained strategies for preparing business plans, pitching ideas effectively, and attracting investors. The speaker highlighted the role of incubators and accelerators in providing mentorship, networking opportunities, infrastructure, and market access to early-stage startups. Real-time case studies and success stories were presented to help participants understand the startup lifecycle.

The interactive session enabled students and faculty to clarify their doubts regarding startup policies, funding procedures, and available institutional and national-level support programs.

Participants gained a comprehensive understanding of startup registration procedures, funding generation methods, and incubation support systems. The seminar inspired students and faculty members to confidently pursue their innovative ideas and motivated them to initiate entrepreneurial ventures with structured guidance and financial backing.
